

Proposed DRS default transfer process

We are proposing that in undefended DRS cases, the complainant should have the right to a transfer of the domain name registration on payment of a fee of £200 (plus VAT).
Please read our consultation paper for full details of this proposed default transfer process and then answer the questions below.

This document contains respondents between 73 and 73 inclusive.

1. What do you think about our proposal for a default transfer process?

- I agree with the proposal
- I don't mind one way or the other
- I disagree with the proposal

2. Please give your reasons for why you feel this way about the proposal

I feel that by making changes to the DRS system in this manner would only create further problems e.g. an influx of DRS complaints as people who are familiar with the Nominet procedures will try to lay claim to many generics out there, not only will this waste Nominets time but also the domainers with large portfolios to.
