

Proposed DRS default transfer process

We are proposing that in undefended DRS cases, the complainant should have the right to a transfer of the domain name registration on payment of a fee of £200 (plus VAT).
Please read our consultation paper for full details of this proposed default transfer process and then answer the questions below.

This document contains respondents between 101 and 101 inclusive.

1. What do you think about our proposal for a default transfer process?

- I agree with the proposal
- I don't mind one way or the other
- I disagree with the proposal

2. Please give your reasons for why you feel this way about the proposal

Quite honestly I was shocked when I realised that the current owner of the domain does not have to lift a finger in order to hold onto a domain that falls into a grey area. After losing our case our company lost all faith in Nominet, but we are giving you a second chance by taking time to fill in this survey.
