

Proposed DRS default transfer process

We are proposing that in undefended DRS cases, the complainant should have the right to a transfer of the domain name registration on payment of a fee of £200 (plus VAT).
Please read our consultation paper for full details of this proposed default transfer process and then answer the questions below.

This document contains respondents between 123 and 123 inclusive.

1. What do you think about our proposal for a default transfer process?

- I agree with the proposal
- I don't mind one way or the other
- I disagree with the proposal

2. Please give your reasons for why you feel this way about the proposal

It is wholly inappropriate to have any form of default process, particularly where part of the rationale is the cost of a dispute - if the domain has sufficient value that a complaint is warranted then the costs should be met (and recovered) by other means, not by Nominet offering "cheap" methods to do so.
