1. Do you support the idea of placing relevant stakeholders at the heart of the policy advisory process?

- Yes
 No

2. Do you support the PAB's proposal for the creation of issues groups to develop policy recommendations in response to stakeholder proposals?

- Yes
 No

3. Do you agree with the PAB's outline for issues groups (open membership, stakeholder led, time-limited, with a requirement to prepare an impact assessment, and working by consensus)?

- Yes
 No

Do you have any comments on the way that issues groups might work?

There should be a meeting of key stakeholders which determined the key priority areas and which agrees to main objectives for each issue - the issue groups then work to each priority area identified and report back to the stakeholder/steering group on actions taken/progress reaching desired aims/objectives

4. What mechanism should there be for selecting members of issues groups?

In particular, how might we ensure effective participation from Nominet members to bring necessary expertise into the discussions?

The stakeholder group could suggest possible participants who could then be invited to attend. Once there are issue groups established they should recommend potential speakers based on their knowledge/expertise within that area.

5. Do you agree that "permanent" groups might be needed in certain cases?

- Yes
 No

What issues might benefit from this approach?

Crime - influencing a more effective police approach to rising crime.

6. Do you agree that "closed groups" (i.e. groups with invited membership) should be set up when this is necessary?

- Yes
