

Have your say!

Please give us your feedback on these proposals by answering the following questions:

What domains should we release?

This document contains respondents between 96 and 96 inclusive.

Do you agree that two letter domain names should be released for registration in co.uk, org.uk, net.uk and me.uk as recommended by the PAB?

- Yes
- No

Please give comments

Why, just to raise revenues and create money for the leeches [bots] that buy up domains in bulk to sell on at vast profit, or clog the internet with advertising link sites that offer no substance or content !

Do you agree that one character domain names should be released for registration in co.uk, org.uk, net.uk and me.uk as recommended by the PAB?

- Yes
- No

Please give comments

Why, just to raise revenues and create money for the leeches [bots] that buy up domains in bulk to sell on at vast profit, or clog the internet with advertising link sites that offer no substance or content !

Do you agree that existing country codes under ISO 3166-1 such as fr, de, es, us etc be released for registration in co.uk, org.uk, net.uk and me.uk as recommended by the PAB?

- Yes
- No

Please give comments

Why, just to raise revenues and create money for the leeches [bots] that buy up domains in bulk to sell on at vast profit, or clog the internet with advertising link sites that offer no substance or content !

We outlined the technical reasons why com.co.uk, org.co.uk and net.co.uk should not be released. Do you agree with these exceptions?

- Yes
- No

Please give comments

waste of time and money !

Do you agree that existing generic top level domains (e.g. biz, info) should be released for registration in co.uk, org.uk, net.uk and me.uk as recommended by the PAB?

- Yes
- No

Please give comments

waste of time

Do you agree that existing .uk second level domains (e.g. co, org, ac, me, ltd) should also be released for registration in co.uk, org.uk, net.uk and me.uk?

- Yes
- No

Do you agree that "uk" should continue to be reserved from registration in co.uk, org.uk, net.uk and me.uk as recommended by the PAB?

- Yes
- No

We propose to take the same approach for two letter, one character and the other previously unreleased domains (e.g. pro.co.uk). Do you agree with this proposal?

- Yes
- No

The PAB recommended a two stage release process: a first round for holders of registered trademarks, and a second round for names not taken by rights holders, open to holders of unregistered rights. Do you agree with this recommendation?

- Yes
- No

Please give comments

will benefit Large companies only who can afford such marks - what about the small org trader who has been trading online for 10 years but has no trademarks and relies on artistic copyright ?

We propose that initially commercial organisations should have priority in.co.uk and charities and not for profit organisations should have priority in org.uk. Do you agree with this approach?

- Yes
- No

We propose to hold a sealed bid auction for domain names where rights holders are competing, and for domain names not taken up by rights holders. Do you think there is a fairer way to allocate the first registration of these domain names?

- Yes
- No

Please give comments

shocking - no need to be in this position

We propose to hold a Dutch auction for the general release (“landrush”) of domains not taken up by rights holders. Do you think there is a fairer way to allocate the first registration of these domain names?

Yes

No

Please give comments, particularly in relation to the starting price for any Dutch auction.

Ridiculous idea - why bother

Do you have any other comments or suggestions about the proposed release of these domain names?

Why change the current domain structure. It is too unfair and will cause a lot of 'rights' problems that could devalue existing domain name holders and may affect their success on the internet-why should they be penalised by all the new sharks who will be buying up similar domains to sell on to them?

12. Please give us your contact details

Name

Paul D Hooley

Company name/Organisation name

Line9 Internet UK - Advanet LTD