

List of issue group participants – Domain Names Associated with Criminal Activity

1	Dr Ian Walden (in the Chair) Ian Walden is Professor of Information and Communications Law and head of the Institute of Computer and Communications Law in the Centre for Commercial Law Studies, Queen Mary, University of London. He has been involved in numerous law reform projects for organisations such as the World Bank, the European Commission, and a number of individual states. He was a Board Member and Trustee of the Internet Watch Foundation (2004-2009). Ian is a solicitor and is Of Counsel to Baker &amp; McKenzie and is on the Board of the Press Complaints Commission.
2	Nimo Ahmed Nimo is the Head of Intelligence at the MHRA (Medicines and Health Products Regulatory Agency). The MHRA Enforcement &amp; Intelligence Group (E &amp; I) has responsibility for enforcing medicines legislation in England, Scotland and Wales. It investigates cases and where appropriate, brings criminal prosecutions.
4	Professor Russell Beale Russell Beale is Professor of Human Computer Interaction at the School of Computer Science, University of Birmingham. His interests include the nexus between computing and communication systems and society and he is a past Chair of the British Computer Society's interaction group, which specialised in connecting academics, practitioners, issues and policy.
3	Eleanor Bradley Eleanor Bradley is the Director of Operations at Nominet, where she oversees the Operations Department and is responsible for service delivery to domain name registrants and registrars.
5	Alison Curry-Taylor Alison Curry-Taylor is the Operations Director of Daily Internet Services Ltd, a UK-based registrar. She brings significant operational and customer experience of the registrar industry.
6	Karen Ford Karen Ford is the Head of Trading Standards at Milton Keynes Council. She is the current secretary of the Association of Chief Trading Standards Officers and in that role is the national lead for e-crime/consumer protection covering England and Wales.
7	Macsen Galvin Macsen is the Head of Product Management at Webfusion, a major UK-based registrar. He brings experience of customer management, hosting, and the domain industry, along with interaction with law enforcement and government.
8	Mark Gracey Mark Gracey is Regulatory Manager at THUS Ltd, owned by Cable&amp;Wireless Worldwide. He is responsible for regulatory compliance issues across both the internet and telecommunications, as well as liaising with law enforcement agencies and data protection compliance. Mark is also a Council Member of the Internet Service Providers Association.

9	Alex Hanff Alex Hanff is a Campaigns Advisor at Privacy International where he leads the organisation's online privacy portfolio. Privacy International is a UK-based not for profit organisation that broadly seeks to protect privacy and data protection,
10	Paul Hoare Paul Hoare is a Detective Inspector in the Police Central e-Crime Unit (PCeU) of the Metropolitan Police. The PCeU seeks to tackle those responsible for the most serious incidents of computer intrusion, distribution of malicious code, denial of service attack and internet-enabled fraud.
11	Malcolm Hutton Malcolm Hutton is Head of Public Affairs at LINX, the London Internet Exchange, where he responsible for representing the views of the LINX membership. Malcolm is a Director of EuroISPA and a Regulatory Affairs Spokesman for Euro-IX.
12	Paul Karkas Paul Karkas is a Compliance Officer with OpenSRS for Canadian-based registrar Tucows Inc, the largest public trade registrar. He brings significant registrar and domain experience to the issue group.
13	Gary Kibbey Gary Kibbey is a Senior Manager in the e-Crime Department of the Serious and Organised Crime Agency (SOCA). He currently leads SOCA's internet governance initiative involving work with ICANN and other member of the internet community.
14	Jim Killock Jim Killock is the Executive Director of the Open Rights Group which seeks to preserve digital rights and freedoms by campaigning on digital rights issues. Jim was previously External Communications Co-ordinator of the Green Party where he worked on issues such as open source, intellectual property, and digital rights.
15	Uwe Rasmussen Uwe Rasmussen is Legal Counsel at Microsoft Europe, Middle-East and Africa. He is part of Microsoft's Digital Crimes Unit, a worldwide team of lawyers, investigators, technical analysts and other specialists whose mission is to make the Internet safer and more secure through strong enforcement, global partnerships, policy and technology solutions.
16	Cedric Knight Cedric Knight is a Technical Consultant at Greenet, a UK-based collective ISP that specialises in domain services for organisations and activities involved in environmental, ethical, or human rights activities.

17	Andrew Puddephatt Andrew Puddephatt is a Director of Global Partners &amp; Associates (GPA) which seeks to promote effective good governance and effective democratic practice in countries around the world. He was previously Executive Director of ARTICLE 19, an organisation working on freedom of expression; Director of Charter88, the UK's leading constitutional reform organization; and General Secretary of Liberty.
18	Stephen Rhodes Stephen Rhodes is an Assistant Director at the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills (BIS) where amongst other things he is responsible for domestic Internet domain name policy, including the reserve powers on Internet domain registries in the Digital Economy Act 2010.
19	Rosina Robson Rosina Robson is a Senior Policy Adviser at the Federation of Small Business and is the FSB's main contact in the policy team on Home Affairs issues, crimes against business and fraud.
20	Mark Ward Mark Ward is Interim Head of Security at UK Payments Administration. UK Payments Administration supplies services to a wide range of companies and brands including BACS, CHAPS, SWIFT UK, Payments Council, Financial Fraud UK and the UK Cards Association.
21	Charlie Winkworth Charlie Winkworth represents the Anti-Counterfeiting Group (ACG) and is a Senior Associate at law firm Hogan Lovells. The ACG is a not for profit trade association, which seeks to combat the worldwide trade in fakes.