

Option 3 has my support.

The others leave the possibility of one member able to hold the bulk of the membership to ransom and able to block amendments to the Memorandum or not being effected without a change to the Articles which is neither a simple or trivial task.

One paid member one vote is where we should be going and I would support the amendment of the articles to bring this about.

Gordon Burns